WHY I AM
BOTHERING YOU

I'm a Democrat running for Congress...and you're a Democratic voter!
Me in 25 words: Husband; Father; Small Business Owner; University of Chicago Graduate; Boy Scout Troop Leader; Big Brother; Sugar Lover; Coffee/Tea Equal Opportunist; Self-loathing Shark Tank Fan.

MY STORY

While being a candidate is new for me, community service is not. My family and I volunteer in two soup kitchens, participate in Meals on Wheels and aid in local natural disaster relief efforts. I've organized rallies for universal healthcare. And I helped successfully lobby the state to shut down an ICE detention center. (I even helped elect my opponent – back before he started taking corporate PAC money.)

I STARTED
VOLUNTEERING FOR CAUSES THAT MATTER

When you're a volunteer, taking action on the ground, you go through cycles of cynicism and optimism. You can't help but notice that you're never doing enough...and others (in Congress) aren't doing much at all.
But now is not a time for cynicism. Our country faces serious problems that demand immediate action. So, I'm stepping to demand action from politicians in D.C.
